

Peter Lindqvist, Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Trondheim

On a nonlinear eigenvalue problem

Abstract: The talk is an overview of an eigenvalue problem with the so-called  $p$ -harmonic operator. Also the fascinating asymptotic case  $p = \infty$  is touched upon. While there is a lot of accumulated pieces of knowledge related to the ground state, the higher eigenvalues remain "mysterious". There are still many open problems waiting for a solution.