William Harvey

Automorphisms of surface bundles

Abstract The recent landmark results of Kahn and Markovic have completed an epic voyage through low dimensional geometric topology, and we now know in principle everything about the structure of compact hyperbolic 3-manifolds: they are virtual surface bundles. This talk will survey some of the background and try to answer the obvious question: what finite automorphism groups can occur?